

CONTENTS

PREFACE by Emma C. Bunker .....	9
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS .....	11
INTRODUCTION .....	13
THEORETICAL AND METHODOLOGICAL CONSIDERATIONS REGARDING IMAGES .....	17
Image and image object – an attempt towards a definition .....	18
The medium as a message? .....	20
Agents, storage media, copies, symbols – the image of images .....	22
REMARKS ON THE GENERAL APPROACH IN THIS WORK .....	28
HISTORY OF RESEARCH .....	29
Late 19th century to early 20th century – the emergence of the first collections .....	29
1935 to 1960 – early research on collections and the question of the origin of the objects .....	30
1960 until today – the first archaeological excavations and their evaluation .....	31
The figurative art of the northern Chinese steppe – imbued with meaning or “Art for art’s sake”? .....	32
DEFINITION OF THE RESEARCH AREA .....	35
Topography and current climatic conditions .....	36
Palaeoclimate .....	37
THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF THE RESEARCH AREA .....	40
South of mount Manhan – the Maoqinggou culture .....	41
Area of distribution and dating 41 – Grave forms and burial customs 42 – Remarks on characteristic objects 43 – Subsistence strategy and ethnic identification 45 – Exchange with neighboring cultures 47
In the Ordos region – the Taohongbala culture .....	48
Area of distribution and dating 48 – Grave forms and burial customs 49 – Remarks on characteristic objects 49 – Subsistence strategy and ethnic identification 50 – Exchange with neighboring cultures 52
Southern Ningxia and eastern Gansu – the Yanglang culture .....	55
Area of distribution and dating 55 – Grave forms and burial customs 56 – Remarks on characteristic objects 56 – Subsistence strategy and ethnic identification 58 – Exchange with neighboring cultures 58

The Xiongnu Empire .....	59
Area of distribution and dating 59 – Grave forms and burial customs 62 –
Remarks on different groups of objects 63 – Subsistence strategies 64 –
Origin and ethnic identification 64
Contacts between the northern Chinese steppe and the Dian culture? .....	65
THE HISTORICAL CONTEXT .....	69
In good times as in bad – the instable relationship between the
Chinese and the Barbarians as depicted in written sources .....	70
Wild animals and kings of the left and right –
the northern peoples as portrayed in written sources .....	78
Between concreteness and imagination – remarks on the reliability of written sources .	81
REMARKS ON SOURCE MATERIALS AND
CRITERIA FOR INTRODUCING QUALITY GROUPS .....	83
Quality groups 1A, 1B and 1C .....	83
Quality groups 2A and 2B .....	84
OF BELT BUCKLES, BELT HOOKS, AND BELT PLAQUES .....	86
General remarks .....	86
Statements on belts in written sources .....	88
Problems with the terminology .....	91
The belts of the northern Chinese steppe .....	92
Appearance 92 – Materials 94 – Production methods 96 – Suggestions on the functionality of the belt plaques 99
THE CLASSIFICATION OF THE MATERIAL
WHICH IS THE FOCUS OF THIS STUDY .....	101
DESCRIPTIONS OF MOTIFS .....	103
Single animals (motifs 1–10) .....	103
Motif 1 103 – Motif 2 105 – Motif 3 105 – Motif 4 106 – Motif 5 106 –
Motif 6 106 – Motif 7 107 – Motif 8 108 – Motif 9 109 – Motif 10 109 –
Unique objects 109
Groups of animals (motifs 11–23) .....	109
Motif 11 110 – Motifs 12a and 12b 110 – Motifs 13a and 13b 110 –
Motif 14 110 – Motif 15 111 – Motif 16 112 – Motif 17 112 – Motif 18 112 –
Motif 19 113 – Motif 20 113 – Motif 21 114 – Motif 22 115 – Motif 23 115 –
Unique objects 115
Animal combat (motifs 24–25) .....	116
Motif 24 116 – Motif 25 116
Attacks (motifs 26–33) .....	117
Motif 26 117 – Motif 27 118 – Motif 28 119 – Motif 29 119 – Motif 30 119 –
Motif 31 119 – Motif 32 119 – Motif 33 120
Predatory scenes (motifs 34–39) .....	120
Motif 34 120 – Motif 35 121 – Motif 36 122 – Motif 37 123 – Motif 38 123 –
Motif 39 124
Scenic depictions (motifs 40–45) .....	125
Motif 40 125 – Motif 41 125 – Motif 42 126 – Motif 43 126 – Motif 44 127 –
Motif 45 127 – Unique objects 127

THE DISTRIBUTION OF MOTIFS, MATERIALS AND FORMAL PROPERTIES IN TIME AND SPACE .....	129
Representations with peaceful and aggressive connotation .....	129
Motif groups and motifs .....	129
Single animals 129 – Groups of animals 130 – Animal combat 131 – Attacks 131 – Predatory scenes 132 – Scenic depictions 132
Elements of depictions .....	133
Bovines 133 – Caprids 133 – Cervids 133 – Equids 134 – Camels 134 – Composite creatures 134 – Predators 134 – Birds of prey and bird-headed antlers 135 – Floral elements 135
Formal properties of the belt plaques .....	135
Materials 135 – Shapes 137 – Types of borders 137 – Solid or openwork belt plaques 138
SUMMARY AND FURTHER CONSIDERATIONS .....	139
Motif groups and motifs: Indications for an intentional use? .....	139
Individual depictions: Indicators of the local subsistence strategy? .....	140
Formal properties of belt plaques – suggestions on the interpretation of similar patterns of distribution .....	141
BELT PLAQUES AND IMAGES IN THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL CONTEXT .....	143
Relationship between the motif groups and the sex of the deceased .....	143
Relationship between the motif groups and the age of the deceased .....	144
Position of the belt plaques in the grave .....	147
THOUGHTS ON THE STATUS OF THE PERSONS BURIED WITH BELT PLAQUES .....	149
Northern Chinese steppe .....	149
In the Central Plains and southern China .....	160
SUMMARY AND INTERPRETATION .....	167
IMAGES AS ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOURCE? RÉSUMÉ AND FUTURE RESEARCH .....	171
BIBLIOGRAPHY .....	173
GLOSSARY .....	196
CATALOGUE .....	200
MAPS .....	247
PLATES .....	263